"Wheel of Fortune LIVE!" is an all-new theatrical experience going on tour across North America giving fans a chance to win prizes in their hometown theater. "Wheel of Fortune LIVE!" is not for broadcast and will not air on television. Unfortunately, Pat and Vanna will not be joining the tour, but great prizes and the game you love will be! The touring show will feature a fantastic host and co-host who will be announced at a future date. All eligible contestants wishing to register must present themselves in person and show a valid government I.D. if requested. Guests who want the chance to play as on-stage contestants are shown a sample of the type of puzzle used in the show. Potential contestants are selected at random from among those who correctly solve the sample puzzle. Audience game contestants are selected entirely at random from among everyone registered. You must be 18 years of age or older to be eligible to register to become a contestant. Anyone can watch the show. It's often a family affair, however only those 18 years of age or older can be eligible to be a contestant. Contestant registration for "Wheel of Fortune Live," the theatrical experience (not the TV show), takes place on the day of the show, prior to showtime. Registration closes at showtime. Each eligible person will present their valid government ID to the event staff if requested, then complete the registration process by supplying their name and month and numerical day of birth for entry into the registration system.
